Dear Charlie:

Thank you for your very gracious letter regarding Milton. I know this will do him lots of good, and I assure you it will give his parents genuine satisfaction. Nothing that you could have written would have been a better tonic to Milton and to his mother.

You know, mothers have a way of hoping for the very best for their sons, and when someone compliments their work then the mothers feel that their life has been a success because all of their life goes into their children. As for the dad, - of course he is always proud, but he is rather a hardboiled guy that never shows any sentiment or emotion at times, but I do want you to know that I appreciate your writing this as it is a fine tribute from a fine fellow.

Thanking you again, and assuring you I was happy to receive your letter, I am

Very sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.
