Coach Albert Hawley,
Carson Indian School,
Stewart, Nevada.

Dear Al:

Wade Green dropped in yesterday afternoon and asked that I should mail your school two of my new books, "Better Basketball".

He said that you desired that I send them to you c.o.d. The books sell for $4.00 a piece and I have autographed one to you as Wade said that you requested me to do so. I trust that you will like the autograph. There is 11¢ postage and 17¢ for the collection fee and the return postage, making a total amount of 28¢ for the c.o.d. charges. And two books at $4.00 a piece would make a total of $8.28.

I had written Wade earlier telling him that if he would send me a check I would mail the books to him, but he stated that you desired them sent this way and that you would pay from the school treasury. I trust that the orders that I have followed are the ones that you wished Wade to convey to me.

I am very sure that you will like the book because I have yet to receive word from any of the coaches who did not like this new book of mine. I have written seven or eight yarns in the back of the book under the title of Tales of Yesteryears which tell of the high points in certain football and basketball games concerning teams that I have coached.

I will be happy to hear from you and tell me how you like the book. Wade tells me you are getting along splendidly and I am happy to hear of the fine family that you have.

With all good wishes for your continued success, and wishing you a very prosperous and happy New Year, I am

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.
