

thought that if it was impossible for me to get a job at G. U., I might get one at Virginia and go there, since it is a less expensive school.
Therefore it makes it a little difficult for me to know exactly what to do, since I won't see Miss Lear until September.

How much is the tuition?
I want to join a sorority, so my room and board would be ~~of~~ about fifty dollars a month. My folks can send me about thirty-five a month, so do you think I could make it?
