the first time I had heard about Bill Beven. If that was in the Rebounds I must have missed ~~that~~ copy. They sure don't make any squarer shooters than T.P. and Bill.

I guess about the biggest thrill I have had overseas happened when my brother walked into our headquarter last Monday morning. He came overseas about ~~three~~ ^{two} months and since I came into Germany we have been trying to find each other. He found out that one night while our battalion was moving from France to Germany that we slept ~~one night~~ within ten miles of each other. Well we finally got together and had a swell bull session. He only had 24 hours and had to return to his camp in Belgium. Hope to see more of him but that is hard to tell how that
