

BETTY JEANNE HELLER

July 21, 1934

Dear Dr. Allen,

There's really no excuse for my not writing you sooner in reply to such a wonderful letter as you sent Ralph. However, I started working just a week ago today, so I haven't got my time budgeted to the best advantage as yet.

I don't think it's possible for me to tell you how much I appreciate what you're doing for me. I realize how hard it will be for you, especially since I have been so slow about answering. But don't think that it's because I didn't consider