

want him to be as great as possible, so if I might keep him from achieving that, I would rather not come to Lawrence next year. All through high school, the coaches have been rather against the "girl-friends," so it seems a little strange to me for you to want me to come to N. U. and do everything you are to make it possible.

Thanking you again, I am

Sincerely yours,

Betty Yvonne Miller