Mr. D. G. Hamilton,
Hamilton Wholesale Drug Co.,
18th and Wyandotte,
Kansas City, Mo.

Dear Mr. Hamilton:

I want to thank you very much for your kindness to me when I stopped by the other evening. Mrs. Allen was waiting out in the car for me, and when I returned I was under the impression that she, being in an unfavorable parking area, would not want to wait for me to accept your kindness in sitting at the fountain for a drink.

When I told her that you were in there she said, "Well, I wanted an ice cream soda myself", so we turned around at the next block and came back to see you, but the young lady said you had just gone down the street. We must have missed you only by a minute.

Mrs. Allen had a letter from Mary telling all about the family, and she wanted you to see it. It was a beautifully written letter and gave in full detail all the activities of the family.

I desired to explain my abruptness in hurrying in and hurrying out, and was sorry to have missed you after we returned.

With every good wish, I am

Very sincerely yours,
