

October 14, 1937.

Mr. Lacey Haynes,
Kansas City Star Bureau,
Kansas City, Kansas.

Dear Lacey:

Confirming your telephone call of yesterday noon, I have conferred with Mr. Earl Falkenstien, the financial secretary of the Athletic Association, and he has fixed you up with nine good seats for the Kansas-Missouri football game on Thanksgiving Day.

He is also leaving four good seats at the gate for each game with Iowa State and Kansas State in your name. So if you do not happen to come there will be no damage done. Mr. Falkenstien can just check them back against his record.

It was a real pleasure to hear from you, and I want you to know that any time you call on me for any little thing to do from this end of the line it will be an extreme pleasure to be able to reciprocate some of your many courtesies.

With every good wish, I am

Sincerely yours,

FCA:AH

Director of Physical Education.