

September 18, 1937.

Major L. McC. Jones,
Director of Athletics,
University of Nebraska,
Lincoln, Nebraska.

Dear Biff:

I have just received a letter from my eldest daughter's father-in-law, Mr. D. G. Hamilton, president of the Hamilton Drug Company, 18th and Wyandotte St., Kansas City, Missouri. He is making a special appeal to me for three tickets to the Nebraska-Minnesota game at Lincoln on October 2.

Since Mr. Hamilton is in my daughter's family I would appreciate anything you could do for him. I am enclosing a blank check executed by Mr. Hamilton and endorsed by me. Will you kindly correspond with Mr. Hamilton regarding what available seats you have left?

If you are forced to put them in the temporary bleachers at the end I, of course, would be sorry. Mr. Hamilton is a K. U. alumnus, and lost a leg during his undergraduate days at the University. For that reason I am hoping that he can be placed in some permanent seat where the danger of injury is lessened.

I promise you that I will not bother you any more than I am forced to do so, because I can appreciate what such irritations mean even in the normal flow of business. Ordinarily I would write to John K. Selleck, and perhaps you will turn this over to him, but I would appreciate this personal attention of yours if you can do it.

With kindest regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

FCA:AH

Director of Physical Education.