Dear Dr. Allen:

I'm not very prompt with this review, but here it is. Neither do I feel that I have done a very good job of handling it. You see I forget much of the features of the race by mid-summer, but hope this meets your requirements.

I enjoy doing this, but if you know long enough ahead of time next year, I wish you would let me know by the close of the season, and I'll send it in then, when the matter is fresher in my mind and I will be able to do a much better job.

If this doesn't suit send it back and I'll try to look up some of the games in the files and write a better one.

I'm feeling pretty well, but getting terribly tired of this heat, and trust you are taking a vacation somewhere that is cooler than Kansas.

Thanking you for the recognition, and wishing you kindest personal regards, I am,

Sincerely,

Charles E. Hobbs
