Dear Mr. Allen:

I am enjoying your book "Better Basketball." It certainly is the best and most extensive digest of todays basketball. Your book follows very closely the demonstration that you gave at summer schoollat Spirit Lake, Iowa, last year. I hope that I may attend one of your schools this coming summer.

We are enjoying another great team at Blue Earth; perhaps one of the best in the state. I am interested in seeing a member of this team work under you. His name is Burton Belleson. Many schools have approached him to attend their institutions, but I feel I Gould be a big factor in his final selection. I believe Wade Green will bear out my selection of good ball players, and I believe Bellesonis one of the best boys I have coached in the past ten years. He is 6'2", weighs about 170 and has smooth quick action. He is a clever ball handler and a good shot with either hand. He is at present one of the states high scorers. He not only can score but is also good on defense. We use an assigned man to man defense and Belleson always draws the big good man. He is not only a
