

February 12, 1938.

Mr. H. V. Howard,
203 $\frac{1}{2}$ South Summit St.,
Arkansas City, Kansas.

Dear Harry:

Last week we wrote to Bill Cross at the University of Oklahoma, asking him to send us 25 reserved seat tickets and charge them to our account. He wrote back and stated that there would be no reserved tickets -- all general admission, first come, first served.

We are going to stop at the Kingkade Hotel, going down on the Santa Fe Thursday night and arriving at Oklahoma City early Friday morning, 7:30. We will stay at the Kingkade until just prior to our driving over to Norman, which will be about 4:30. We will go to the cafeteria there and have some tea and toast and celery before we play.

Now, if there is any way I can wangle you, Ed Crane, George Gardner, and the other fellow in the field house when we go in to dress it will be a pleasure. After you once get in you will be all right -- like the fellow that took the Notre Dame team down to the 10-yard line. You can make it yourself the rest of the way.

I will be glad to see you and George and the other boys if you can get in with these arrangements. Drop me a line at the Kingkade Hotel and I will be informed so that I can cooperate with you fully. It will be a pleasure to see you and your gang.

With every good wish, I am

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.

FCA:AH