

November 16, 1937.

Mr. Henry Harper, Sr.,
Plymouth, Indiana.

Dear Hank:

I just wanted you to know that our summer vacation coupled with your generosity in giving me a pair of those fine Wisco shoes to try out produced an order for your firm, sent through Snowden-Mize Hardware Company, of Atchison, Kansas, for two dozen of the Wisco shoes. Bud Weidick, the salesman, took the order, and doubtless you have received credit for the same. If you have not, I am writing to tell you that you should have it.

Cordially yours,
