Dear Carl:

I am very sorry that the McGraw-Hill Publishing Company, the people who are publishing my new book, will not have it off the press until the latter part of this month. For that reason we cannot send you a text from Lawrence.

However, you can count on Lowe and Campbell giving you tip-top service as soon as the book is off the press.

I am sending you a sketch of the book, and I feel rather happy to say that I believe this is by far the best publication that I have attempted. I trust that you will like it.

With kindest regards and best wishes,

I am

Sincerely yours,
