

December 13, 1937.

Mr. Forrest Hewitt,
Superintendent of Schools,
Washington, Kansas.

Dear Forrest:

Perhaps you misunderstood my letter. We leave here the morning of the 27th and go to Des Moines and practice there on the 28th, play on the 29th, and get home on the 30th.

We may practice a few days before Christmas. We are playing Southwestern on the 21st. Perhaps we will practice on the 22nd and 23rd, and allow the boys to go home about noon on the 24th.

Did you get a copy of the new book, "Better Basketball"? If you want me to autograph a copy for you, if you haven't procured one, mail me your check for $4.00 and I will be glad to autograph it and send it postpaid to you. If you have bought one, bring it down and I will be happy to autograph it for you.

I will be happy to meet your boys.

I appreciate your continued interest in the University and in our set-up.

With every good wish of the Yuletide season,
I am

Sincerely yours,

FCA:AH
