

that some day the corruption that is going on in connection with collegiate athletics will at least be partially brought under control.

Best of luck against the Aggies and in other games to come,

"A Big Six sports fan"