Dear Charlie:

Last week Mrs. Allen, Jane, Jill, and I drove down to call on your fine family, but found that you had gone to Hutchinson. I am sorry we missed you. We will try again when you return if I can assemble all the family at one time.

I do hope I will have a visit with you before your time is up. I believe the only time would be in the evening because the day seems so chucked full of contacts that flow in here unrelatedly.

With all good wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,
