TOPEKA

Dear Doc:

I understood the boys had quite a time at the New Orleans basketball committee meeting.

I don't know too much about what happened leading up to the adoption of the new-type backboard. If our high schools in Kansas were victims of any plot or plan, we were innocent victims. I hope I have not stated our case incorrectly in the enclosed article scheduled to appear in the next issue of our Journal.

Why don't they make up their minds before putting a rule into the guide?

Best wishes,
E. A. Thomas

Am I correct in my assumption of what happened before the adoption of the new backboard?
