

September 15, 1937.

Mr. Frank Gilleece, Executive Secretary,
Athletic Commission,
Topeka, Kansas.

Dear Frank:

Upon my return to my desk I find your very good letter of August 25th, together with a properly executed card designating me as inspector at large for the Kansas Athletic Commission.

This is very nice of you to think of me and I appreciate it. It has been a pleasure to have known you and to work with you in the Kansas Athletic Commission.

My good wishes are reciprocal.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Phog:

Enclosed is a card officially designating you as an inspector at large for the Kansas Athletic Commission. I sincerely hope you will accept this card as I know that you will continue your interest in the activities of this Commission. I want to feel that during the time I may be connected with the Commission that I have the privilege of seeking your advise whenever necessary.

I have thoroughly enjoyed the years I have spent in connection with you as a member of the Kansas Athletic Commission and wish you the best future success.

Very sincerely yours,

Frank Gilleece
Executive Secretary
