

to stay on in the school as an instructor in Naval Gunnery, which he has been doing since July 1st. I might also add that about that same time he was promoted to Lieutenant (S. G.).

In case you are interested, I might say our oldest son, Bill, is with General Patton's Third Army.
Our last letter from him was dated Sept. 9, in which he said that he was having a little relaxation from very strenuous duty, and was getting wonderful food - and a good movie nearly every night - and that in a combat area! He said that when they first started, the going was pretty tough, but that after he got going - it was more like a "Cook's tour" through France. I know he has seen plenty of action since that letter was written, and of course we are anxious to hear again. Norval, Jr. is still at the same air field in Chico, California.

I will give you the addresses of all three of the boys, for I know they would be glad to get the newsletter, if you are not already sending it to them, as they were in K. U. in the period immediately preceding the time John was there.

I believe we told you when you were in Hutchinson of my nephew, Captain Phil Stratton who graduated from K. U. in 1937, and of the