I missed.

You mentioned sending me the "Rebounds" but I still have never received them; and if the mailing list hasn't already exceeded your supply of paper, I'd sure appreciate one next time you go to press. Outside of a very few of the fellows whose names appear from time to time in the Journal-World, I've just about wash out on their whereabouts.

"Rope" Englemann must have received some nasty burns in his mishap. I sure hope he is coming ~~so~~ along in good shape. As for me, I think I have about 6 more months in the hospital. Since I was home last winter my arm has been worked on twice, but to date the median nerve has not been successfully sutured. Altogether, about 6 centimeters of scar tissue
