Mr. Clint W. Kanaga, Sr.,
Jenkins Music Company,
Kansas City, Mo.

Dear Clint:

Thanks so much, Clint, for your fine letter giving me the dope on Clint, Jr. Your letter came just too late to be used in the Rebounds, but will be used in the next Jayhawk Rebounds which will be published a month, I hope, from the time the last one was sent out.

I know that Marine major had very good ground to say some nice things about Clint. Everybody does because Clint is not only a square shooter but a one hundred per center. I don't blame you at all for being very proud of Clint. He is a grand chap and we are all very fond of him.

You can bet on me to mention nothing that will embarrass our fighting men, and especially Clint.

Thanks for your good wishes. I took the letter home and read it to Mrs. Allen, which accounts for some of the lateness in acknowledging receipt of your splendid letter.

With all good wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,
