

② will catch us soon. Saw where Ray was first choiced in the draft by the Chicago Bears. I hope you get that '42 bunch back for one more year after the war. I missed seeing them whip Tucker twice.

T-Bone says, "if they don't hurry up and get those gold basketballs out, some of us will get them posthumously." I said, "I'll write Doc and tell him what you said." "T" got flustered & said "Don't you dare!!" That's a kick, isn't it?

Well, you may rest assured that we rate you as the finest coach in the game and just as great a man. The Marines are for you 101%. Too bad that Jack Gardner put the screws on the material situation but Dad said you did
