Mr. Clint Kanaga,
Jenkins Music Co.,
Kansas City, Mo.

Dear Clint:

Thank you very much for your letter of the 22nd instant advising me that Clint will be home shortly. Mrs. Allen wrote Mrs. Kanaga and we keep pretty well advised on our young man.

Congratulations on all the good luck that Clint has had. He has had some bad, but he is all in one piece, and that is something when a Marine goes through the Solomons and comes back, even though he is handicapped by illness. And we can rejoice and be exceedingly glad.

We will certainly be delighted to see Clint when he is able to come down. We share your great joy and happiness.

With all good wishes, I am

Very sincerely yours,
