Dear Pfog:

I was really pleased with your letter to Mr. Dewell because you put the thing just exactly the way I felt it should be put. In fact, once or twice I said the same thing to parents, myself, although perhaps I was not quite so polished and did not use the delicate finesse that you used in telling him he was selling his boy out to the highest bidder, and making a gladiator out of him.

I am sorry, of course, to lose a good athlete, but if they can't iron out things for a boy who was being taken care of like he was, in other words, if they expect more than that, it is just too bad. Anyway, I can't get real excited right now with this bigger job we have on our hands.

I had a letter from Clint written January 31 after they had completed their drive up the island, and he has been through some terrific times. I will tell you about it the first time I see you.

As ever,

Yours,

CWK:m
