Mr. J. E. Kissell,
Portis, Kansas.

Dear Mr. Kissell:

My sincere gratitude and thanks for your wonderful remembrance. If you had shopped around for a month you could not have found anything that I would have liked as well as this lovely Gillette DeLuxe razor.

I have used the electric razor - two of them and discarded both of them - and had gone back to my Gillette but it had a heavy cardboard paper box and through the years has become badly worn. In fact, I reinforced all corners of this box with adhesive tape in an effort to reclaim it from its dilapidated condition. With this new metal container and the new razor I feel as happy as a boy with a new toy. Thanks a million, sir, although you know that it was so entirely unexpected that it thrilled me deeply.

I will be anxiously awaiting your letter in which you will give me the current topics of the day.

Please remember the Allens most kindly to Mrs. Kissell, and remember always that I deeply appreciate your friendship and generosity.

Very cordially yours,
