Dear Phog. I know you have probably been too busy to note my negligence in writing to thank you for trying your best to help get Chuck Campbell up to K.U. However I did appreciate it though it all went for naught and he is now down at M. U. However I always figure that if one does his best and fails after exhausting every expedient then he need not worry about failing.

I did want this boy to go to KU very badly. He is clean as a hound's tooth just such a boy as Bobby or Clint & he really was a wonderful High School end. The best I ever saw but only ordinary in basket ball & rather small for varsity material. However I knew Faurot liked him because he came up to see him at least three times & this whetted my appetite.

I got a letter from him today telling me he plays end on the no. 1 Freshman Team & played two full quarters in the
