Kansas City, Mo.

Dear Clint:

It was mighty fine of you to write me as you did regarding Bobby. I will convey your good wishes and congratulations to Mrs. Allen and I know it will please her most heartily. And I will not forget when I write Bobby to tell him of your thoughtfulness in writing Mrs. Allen and me regarding his achievements. Thank you very much.

Now, I want to tell you regarding your fine son, Clint. He asked Mrs. Allen and me over to the Phi Delt house for dinner last Thursday and we had a lovely time. Mrs. Allen said, after leaving the house, "Forrest, isn't Clint a most satisfactory boy? He seems to have everything - earnestness of purpose, sincerity of action, and a most pleasing and affable personality. He is forceful, and does not drift to superficiality."

We have always been very fond of Clint and I want you to know that there is a common bond among parents that makes us appreciate these fine things in youth.

With all good wishes to you and a deep appreciation for your writing, I am, with kindest personal regards,

Very sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education and Recreation,
Varsity Basketball and Baseball Coach.
