

But since the students are away on their vacation it is not possible to do this. Therefore, we are staying at home and scheduling our games largely between the first and the second semesters. We have a very long interim between the first and second semesters - January 29 to February 4. Therefore, we are playing the University of Iowa, De Paul and Wichita University in between semesters.

I trust that this gives you the information that you desire.

With all good wishes for a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year, I am

Very sincerely yours,
