Dear Br. Allen:

It has been some time since I bothered you but I want to see what you do to Mr. Tucker and company and would appreciate it if you could save me two tickets for the Oklahoma game.

I understand from my undercover men that you have one of your better teams in the making this year and if so, I am pulling for another undefeated season for you. Anyhow, here is to every success.

Sincerely yours,

Sid Kross, Publisher
