Dear Phog - you'll have to pardon that but I've heard of them many years - I just want to drop you a line to tell you how I appreciate the contact Clint & Co has had with you. Would have written long ago but didn't want to if Clint kept on trying in basketball as it might look funny to you if he were trying out for a place on the squad.

However - Clint just about worships you and it has been mighty good of you to let him stay out like you did last year and give him any attention. I know his knee injury slowed him down until he will never make em athlete and it has just about broken his heart. He was a pretty good little football player till he got this bum knee. He would make it through the season and I didn't have the
