

Comment: (Second team)

BOB HARRIS - A hard driving forward who was fouled frequently and who capitalized on his free throw opportunities with uncanny accuracy. The play of this red-headed sophomore was characterized by his hustle and reckless abandon.

RALPH MILLER - One of the two greatest high school players ever developed in the basketball-minded state of Kansas. Hampered all this season by a knee injury, but has been invaluable to the Jayhawks during the time that he has been able to play. Averaged 12 points a game in non-conference play. The best passer in the Big Six this year.

ERVIN REID - Played forward for Kansas State, but would make a fine center. Tall and well built, Reid was a tough proposition for all guards. Uses unorthodox shots most of the time. Good tipper around the basket. Should have his best year next season.

ALTON WERNER - Had his best nights against Kansas, scoring 13 points at Lincoln and 19 at Lawrence. A very good long shot and better than average on one-handers. Improved considerably on defense this year. Leading Nebraska scorer in non-conference games.

MARVIN MESCH - Not quite as sensational this year as last, but a good steady player. Mesch is a good scorer and is probably the best defensive player on the O. U. team, with the possible exception of Scheffler. A good ball handler.
