

February 24, 1939.

Mr. Sid Kross, Publisher,
The Advocate Press,
625 Quincy Street,
Topeka, Kansas.

Dear Mr. Kross:

Immediately on receipt of your letter of the 23rd instant I got in touch with Mr. Earl Falkenstien, financial secretary of the Athletic Association, in regard to tickets for you for the Oklahoma game.

As you doubtless know, there has been a big demand for seats for this game, and the best seats have been taken. However, Mr. Falkenstien is reserving two of the best seats available at this time, one with the compliments of the Athletic Association. The other one you may pay for when you pick them up. The tickets will be held in your name at the ticket window.

Thanking you for your good wishes, and trusting that you enjoy the game Saturday night, I am

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.