

POSTAL TELEGRAPH

Dallas, Texas
May 12, 1939

Dr. F. C. Allen.

Have chance to go Dayton, Ohio. Must be there Sunday. Need one hundred dollars immediately to transport family. Increased pay means can repay June 15. My chance for return to big time. Wire either way. Doc, it means that chance I have been waiting for. Regards.

Joe Knack

Editorial Dept., Dispatch-Journal

Reply:

Have made certain commitments which render it impossible to accommodate you notwithstanding my fervent wish to do so. Best regards, Joe, and good luck.

F. C. Allen.