

I have neglected to write because I change addresses so often. I decided that if I kept this steady pace of traveling I would never get a letter to you. So if you don't mind changing my address on your list, I will write more often.

My best regards to you and Mrs. Allen.

Sincerely yours,
Bill.