Dear Dr. Allen:

We are losing Tom Scott to the University of North Carolina, and this leaves us without a man to coach basketball and teach the physical education classes that have been handled by him. Do you have one or two good men to recommend?

I think, also, I may be looking for a man to coach football and teach men's physical education. For either position we should have a man with the master's degree or better.

If you have any suggestions, I shall greatly appreciate having them. With regards, I am

Very sincerely yours,
