Mr. T. Jack Foster
President
Norman Courts
Norman, Oklahoma

Dear Jack:

Your very clever epistle arrived this morning and I am just writing Morris Alder telling him that we will stay with him at the Oklahoma Biltmore when we come down to Oklahoma.

Oklahoma will be pretty tough for us since we have not played any games and we have been on the field only four days altogether, due to excessive rain and cold weather.

Yes, I do remember our correspondence and we had a lot of fun kidding you about that Scotchman Mc Dermott. Now I have always wanted to be a detective but not psychic. These detective stories always intrigue me, but this psychic stuff, I have no capacity for that.

You were just so modest about your fine Norman Courts that you did not say that they were always crowded because the demand is so great to stay at such a lovely place. So you see, I really want to stay with you and I doubtless will try again.

Thanks, I will stop by sometime and have a coke with you.

With all good wishes, I am,

Sincerely yours,
