

Pfc. Otto O. Schnellbacher,
629th TSS, Flight D,
Box 64,
Gulfport, Miss.

they are given anew plane to take care of. Imagine seven schools in the U. S. turning out that many a month or even more, and for every boy they have a plane waiting for him. It doesn't seem possible, but they are doing it and they still are bringing in new men for A and M school." Uncle Sameis surely arranging some additional headaches for the three gangster countries.

Pfc. Jim Reed,
Hq., Hq. Squadron,
2nd O.T.U., A.A.B., A.T.C.,
Homestead, Florida.

Otto writes - "Today I saw 500 crew chiefs leave the field for shipment. That means the government has five hundred new planes for these boys somewhere - for as soon as they leave here

Jim, formerly clever sports writer of the Topeka Daily Capital, sent us his kindest regards. We reciprocate with our very best to Jim.

Maj. Maurice Clavelle Holden,
Box 414,
Carmel, California.

Clavelle was one of our outstanding sport writers on the Kansan and he had an uncanny ability to get the news and put it out in a most attractive way. He was here from 1934 to '40. Congratulations to a successful Jayhawker who is moving profressively ahead.

Lt. (j.g.) Horace Mason,
Hollis N. 27,
Harvard Yards,
Cambridge, Mass.

Greetings to another sports writer, the walking wthletic encyclopedia of the Sports Publicity Bureau of the Athletic Association!

Capt. R. A. Durand,
Co. C, 2nd Amph. Tr. Bn.,
2nd Marine Div.,
c/o Fleet Postoffice,
San Francisco, California.

Fen says he is still where he has been and he is anxious to hear from home folks, as always. We are hoping that your good luck holds out, Fen, and we know it will.

Cand. W. R. Channel,
7 Bty. 3rd Plat., 79 AAA, OCS,
Student Brigade,
Camp Davis, North Carolina.

Dick Channel writes: "I am busier than I everythought I could possibly be. The sweat and weight have been pouring off me - I weight about 196 now and am still going down. I saw Hodges and Hardman the other day. Harlan Altman is in my outfit. Just before I left Eustis I played a basketball game with some boys from Texas and Virginia against some boys from Indiana and Michigan. Naturally we won."

Dick did better against those Indiana boys than we did in 1940 in the N.C.A.A.!

1st Lt. M. F. Griffin, USMCR
O T S 8, M.C.A.S.,
Cherry Point, N.C.

Mel writes - "Through the channels of the Jayhawk Rebounds I find a letter in my box from one of our former boys, Freddie Harris. He was surprised to hear that I was a leatherneck. . . . A few days ago we killed a rattle snake on the B.O.Q. porch with 14 rattlers and a button. We have a nice place to stay and our food is very good. That sounds as if we are eating snakes." But when Mel Griffin sees snakes he really takes care of them.

Capt. James K. Hitt,
141st A.A.A. Bn.,
Camp Edwards, Mass.

Capt. Hitt was our former registrar, succeeding George O. Foster, deceased, Jim writes - "Since I saw you that fine