

JAWHAWK REBOUNDS

August, 1943

No. 3

This August 20th morning is a refreshing one. We are having an early fall shower, even though it is still summer. With a few exceptions the summer in Kansas has been delightful. The campus is green and beautiful, and the weather indeed is delightful. Victory gardens and the shrubs were needing this generous rain. It came at the right time to supply a bountiful home harvest for the victorious gardeners. Just now a shaft of sunshine broke through the clouds, indicative of the progress of the war.

You will notice by the scoreboard, which hangs in Hoch Auditorium, the score of the Missouri game played at Lawrence, Kansas, January 6, 1943. Kansas broke the Big Six scoring record, and Charlie Black broke the Big Six individual scoring record with 33 points. The 69 points was a Big Six school record. Indicative of Charlie's record-breaking splurge, we received word a month ago that Charlie had broken the Utah State Agricultural College obstacle course record by 4 seconds. Congratulations, Charlie, on this fine achievement. Charlie's new address is:

A/S Charles E. Black,

Captain Paul R. Harrington, 77th Evacuation Hospital, APO 758, New York, N.Y., wrote as follows on July 22: "As you can tell by the date and the activity in and about the Mediterranean, we are in the thick of it, such as it is. . . . I certainly want to thank you for your grand letter. It came at a most opportune time to spur me on. Many in the letter I did not know. I was very glad to hear about Bob. It won't be long until he joins the M.D. rank."

Well, Paul, to let you know where your old cronies who are in the service are we are sending you their addresses.
