Dear Mr. Allen:

Jack Foster of Norman, owner of the Norman Courts, has just advised me of his inability to take care of your baseball team on April seventeenth, when you play O. U.

I was Manager of the Courts for Jack for over a year, and during that time swapped a letter or two with you, which you may remember. If I remember rightly, you accused me of elaborating or embroidering some of McDermotts remarks. I'll plead guilty for I'll still believe it was for a good cause anyway.

Since leaving Jack, I returned to the Biltmore as Assistant Manager, and I would like very much to have you and your baseball team stop with us since you are unable to get housed in Norman.

I can quote the following special rates for the team: a $1.25 per person, with two men in a room with double beds, or a $1.50 per person with two men in a room with twin beds. As you probably know, all of our rooms have private bath, free radios, circulating ice water, and beds that are really sleep-conditioned.

We could arrange, if you so wished, a private dining room for your meals without any extra charge, or, of course our Coffee Shop is open from 6 a.m. untill midnight.
