Mrs. Swan Johnson
1130 N.E. Twelfth
Oklahoma City, Oklahoma

Dear Mrs. Johnson:

I am sending you copies of Rebound No. 16 and No. 17. The 16 is a story about Bill that I thought you would enjoy. As you can see by the address which we sent it to, we have an incorrect address because it was returned to us by Ensign Edgar L. K. Johnson. I thought by sending it to you that you could mail it to the correct address if you wish.

Ensign Johnson wrote that he was sure that Ensign W. R. Johnson would undoubtedly appreciate the correction to enable him to receive his mail more quickly; but we do not know where Bill is and we will have to depend upon you to furnish the same for us.

Trusting that you are well and that this nasty mess will soon be over, I am

Sincerely,
