

A

October 19, 1942.

Professor T. D. Jones,
Department of Design,
University of Kansas.

Dear Professor Jones:

Those missing motors which I thought could never be delivered to us here were received between April and June of last year. We had had a turn-down on them a year ago, and had given up. Mr. Falkenstien had paid for them on June 2nd, but all this time I was not notified of their arrival.

When you spoke to me about loaning you the motors I was under the impression that we had not enough of them to finish our scoreboard. I went to Mr. Falkenstien and said, "Why can't we let Professor Jones have those motors if we do not have enough." And then I learned the story.

Of course, we want to finish our scoreboard, and I am sorry that I cannot accommodate you, but we will use them for our scoreboard which will be ready for the first game December 5th.

If at any time I can accommodate you in any way please feel free to call upon me.

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.

FCA:AH