Dear Mr. Johnson,

I'll be happy to see you when you come to Lawrence. I have a departmental budget conference with the University officials at 10 a.m. The meeting may last quite some time, but I will be free before noon. I'll arrange to see you and show you around.

I'm happy to have the list of old-time football players. The right guard in 1902 and tackle in 1903 was my brother, H. B. (Pete) Allen. He is now commandant of the R.O.T.C. at Stanford at Palo Alto. His rank is Lieutenant Colonel. The names of these oldtimers are slightly misspelled, but I know most of them and I'll be happy to run over the list with you. Many of them have passed on.

With all good wishes and hoping you can make it I am

Sincerely yours,
