Dear Dr. Allen,

I want to thank you for those tickets to the De Paul game. I hope I didn't seem too demanding in asking for two, but this boy Sturm, who coached at a little high school in Indiana, was very anxious to see Kansas play and to meet its coach. We were very grateful for being allowed to sit on the sideline, and I hope that my score keeping was satisfactory.

I hope that the program isn't too bad. I planned to do much more, but I had to rush up here before I had an opportunity. I am pretty sure I left it in a good enough condition to finish the season.

I have been trying to work up an inter-company basketball tournament but so far we haven't had a liberty period long enough in which to play it. Of course there is Saturday night, but some of these fellows wouldn't trade Saturday night for a pot of gold.

Give my regards to Mrs. Allen and tell her I hope she got the picture she was after.

Sincerely yours,
Maurice Jackson
