

Allen will come with you. We'd be so happy to see both of you.

I hope it will be warmer and dryer by then. We had a downpour yesterday, and it's cloudy and cool today.

Our two boys keep us busy.
Lance would be glad to see you again. They both are getting so big, and all prejudice aside - are really "some boys".

We'll be hoping to see you sometime the 21st.

Most sincerely,
Dorothea Johnson
