Dear Mr. Allen:

I just received word that I am to teach basketball this coming year. This is a W.P.A. Project, therefore I have no money to buy your book that is out for sale. I have a family, wages are very small, so you can see my condition. I do not expect the book, but I ask you if you will send me a few hints about training the team and a few plays. This may seem rather rude, but I do not like to make a fool out of myself. So if you can help me in any way, I would be very much pleased and thanking you again in advance, I remain

Yours Truly,

Frank J. Jones
