

July 20, 1933.

Mr. L. McC. Jones,
Director of Athletics,
University of Nebraska,
Lincoln, Nebraska.

Dear Biff:

Thank you very much for your very kind letter.
I do appreciate your personal attention to this matter.

I am enclosing a check for $15.00 for five tickets.
Another member of our party, which includes men in our athletic group, would very much like to go with us. This is one more than I requested in my earlier letter, and I hope you will be able to let us have five seats. I assure you that I will not abuse your courtesy in this matter, particularly since your seats are sold out. I have been connected with athletics long enough to know what this means.

With deep appreciation, and best wishes for a very pleasant summer, I am

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.
