

November 9, 1937.

Mr. Bal Jeffrey,
Attorney-at-Law,
9th Floor, National Bank Bldg.,
Topeka, Kansas.

Dear Friend Bal:

Immediately after your phone call I got in touch with Mr. Earl Falkenstien and asked that he send you six of the best Aggie tickets possible for the game this week-end.

In computing the amount due over the phone I find that I gypped you out of a dollar in the computation. Five tickets at $2.25 would be $11.25, instead of $12.25, and the 25¢ tax plus the 15¢ insured postage makes $11.65 instead of $12.65.

Mr. Falkenstien is mailing the tickets out to you today, and if your check comes for $12.65 he will mail the $1.00 to you.

It certainly is a pleasure to know that you are going to be back in this part of the country. We anticipate many pleasant visits with you.

With kindest regards, I am

Your old coach,

FCA:AH

Director of Physical Education.