Dear Jake:

You will notice that the book which I had hoped Santa Claus would bring you is being delivered by Nelson Sullivan, one of our diminutive basketeers whom I hoped would prove Santa Claus in the basketball season, but it seemed like Oklahoma wouldn't let us have it that way.

I trust that you will get a little wallop out of some of the stories in the back of the book, "The Tales of Yesterday". The technical side of this game may not appeal to you, but some of this stuff is done in rather chatty fashion, and I hope you will enjoy it.

As usual, I am just about a month late, but if I live long enough I will get around to doing the things I want to do.

With every good wish, I am

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.
