

September 22, 1937.

Major L. McC. Jones,
Director of Athletics,
University of Nebraska,
Lincoln, Nebraska.

Dear Biffer:

It certainly is fine of you to take care of my good friend, Mr. Maurice L. Breidenthal, and also my daughter's father-in-law, Mr. D. G. Hamilton, in the matter of tickets to the Nebraska-Minnesota game. I greatly appreciate your courtesy in securing these tickets at such a late date.

I want you to know, also, how deeply Gwinn Henry and I appreciate your sending us tickets to the Nebraska-Minnesota game. It would have been perfectly all right with us to be "One-Eyed Connelly's", but you certainly are a swell fellow to give us such good seats. I won't tell a soul where the reservations are.

We are looking forward with great anticipation to seeing the Nebraska-Minnesota game.

With all good wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

FCA:AH

Director of Physical Education.